

Workshops and Training Programs

Each of our workshops can be customized to the current needs and challenges of your organization. They are engaging, enlightening and fun and will lead to improved cooperation and interaction.

Why – Focus your Vision and Supercharge your Mission

Do you allow yourself to know and feel what excites you, what motivates you? Can you articulate it? Do the people in your organization know it? How about your customers?

What is your WHY?

Why Megaphone

Now that you have identified your Why - how do you communicate it in all you do? Explore how to fine tune your message to start with Why.

Understand yourself and others through personality assessment.

The workshop utilizes the DISC "personality-styles" of the participants. Participants will learn about themselves and coworkers while leading to better understanding, cooperation and communication within the organization.

TEAM STRENGTH

The workshop content is focused on the various "personality-styles" of the participants. Team members will learn about themselves and coworkers while highlighting their value to the organization. You will better understand how to maximize the qualities and strengths of each team member and project future enhancements to balance the organization.
